STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

19. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of minimum wage, overtime pay, spread of hours pay, and failure to provide the required wage notice at the time of hiring would financially injure Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees and violate state and federal laws.

20. From July 6, 2015 to August 21, 2015 Plaintiff Ding was hired by Defendants to work as a sales clerk and delivery worker, at Defendants business located at 36-37 Main Street, Flushing, New York 11354.

21. From July 6, 2015 until August 21, 2015, Plaintiff Ding worked from 9:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m., with one day off. Plaintiff did not have any uninterrupted period for break. He worked at least sixty (60) hours per week.

22. For the first month of his employment, Plaintiff Ding was paid $330 per week. During the rest of his employment, Plaintiff Ding was paid $340 per week.

23. From July 1, 2013 until the present, Plaintiff Wang has been hired by Defendants to work as a sales clerk and delivery worker, at Defendants business located at 36-37 Main Street, Flushing, New York 11354.

24. From July 1, 2013 until the present, Plaintiff Wang has worked from 9:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. each day. He takes one day off each week, has no uninterrupted time for breaks, and works at least sixty (60) hours per week.

25. For the first month of his employment, Plaintiff Wang was paid $350 per week. From August 2013 until November 2013, Plaintiff was paid $360 per week. From November 2013 to May 2014, Plaintiff was paid $380 per week. From August 17, 2015 until the present, Plaintiff has been paid $390 per week.

26. During periods of time in Plaintiffs' employment, they were not required to utilize any means of recording or verifying their hours worked (e.g. punch clock, sign-in sheet, fingerprint or ID scanner). Defendants did not compensate Plaintiffs for minimum wage or overtime compensation according to state and federal laws

27. Plaintiffs were not compensated for New York's "spread of hours" premium for shifts that lasted longer than ten (10) hours, one day each week.

28. Defendants did not provide Plaintiffs with a wage notices at the time of their hiring.

29. The applicable minimum wage for the period of July 1, 2013 through December 30, 2013 was $7.25 per hour.

30. The applicable minimum wage for the period of December 31, 2013 to December 31, 2014 is $8.00 per hour.

31. The applicable minimum wage for the period of December 31, 2015 to the present is $8.75 per hour.

32. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

33. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime and the "spread of hours" premium would economically injure Plaintiffs and the Collective Action Members by their violation of federal and state laws.

34. While employed by Defendants, Plaintiffs were not exempt under federal and state laws requiring employers to pay employees overtime.

35. Plaintiffs' workdays frequently lasted longer than 10 hours.

36. Defendants did not pay Plaintiffs and other Collective Action members' New York's "spread of hours" premium for every day in which they worked over 10 hours.

37. Defendants did not provide Plaintiffs and other Collective Action members with written notices about the terms and conditions of their employment upon hire in relation to their rate of pay, regular pay cycle and rate of overtime pay. These notices were similarly not provided upon Plaintiffs' and other Collective Action members' pay increase(s).

38. Defendants committed the foregoing acts against the Plaintiffs and the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

39. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying either the FLSA minimum wage or the New York State minimum wage to Plaintiffs or other similarly situated employees.

40. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half), or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half), in violation of the FLSA and New York Labor Law and the supporting federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

41. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying the New York State "spread of hours" premium to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees.

42. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and on behalf of all other and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by the Defendants at their business for up to the last three (3) years, through entry of judgment in this case (the "Collective Action Period") and whom failed to receive minimum wages, spread-of-hours pay, overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week (the "Collective Action Members"), and have been subject to the same common decision, policy, and plan to not provide required wage notices at the time of hiring, in contravention to federal and state labor laws.

43. Upon information and belief, the Collection Action Members are so numerous the joinder of all members is impracticable. The identity and precise number of such persons are unknown, and the facts upon which the calculations of that number may be ascertained are presently within the sole control of the Defendants. Upon information and belief, there are more than four (4) Collective Action members, who have worked for or have continued to work for the Defendants during the Collective Action Period, most of whom would not likely file individual suits because they fear retaliation, lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims. Therefore, Plaintiffs submit that this case should be certified as a collection action under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §216(b).

44. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Collective Action Members, and have retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the field of employment law and collective action litigation. Plaintiffs have no interests that are contrary to or in conflict with those members of this collective action.

45. This action should be certified as collective action because the prosecution of separate action by individual members of the collective action would risk creating either inconsistent or varying adjudication with respect to individual members of this collective action that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interest of the other members not party to the adjudication, or subsequently impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

46. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since joinder of all members is impracticable. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it virtually impossible for the members of the collective action to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as collective action.

47. Questions of law and fact common to members of the collective action predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members. Among the questions of fact common to Plaintiffs and other Collective Action Members are:

- a. Whether the Defendants employed Collective Action members within the meaning of the FLSA;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members the minimum wage in violation of the FLSA and the regulations promulgated thereunder;
- c. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members overtime wages for all hours worked above forty (40) each workweek in violation of the FLSA and the regulation promulgated thereunder;
- d. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members spread of hours payment for each day an employee worked over 10 hours;
- e. Whether the Defendants failed to provide the Collective Action Members with a wage notice at the time of hiring as required by the NYLL;
- f. Whether the Defendants' violations of the FLSA are willful as that terms is used within the context of the FLSA; and,
- g. Whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, punitive, and statutory damages, interest, costs and disbursements and attorneys' fees.

48. Plaintiffs know of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a collective action.

49. Plaintiffs and others similarly situated have been substantially damaged by Defendants' unlawful conduct.
